In the celestial rhythm of delight
In the melancholy of bliss
Come rain come shine
Our is the wine and to dine
To divine.... His lines of incline

Life

A mystery A wonder
Full of events
With those that fill the Hart with joy and Make it firm and the love within evergreen and Those that shatter the heart and
Make it unable to mend even pick up the pieces
My Father was a man of great principles
Strived hard yet harder to acquire satisfaction in its time meaning and Gat as far as any blessed man would he was a role model to me and Knowing him as a father, a friend and was blessed by his teaching & doctrine.
In his struggle in life he tried to do all he could to make a difference
For he knew he would pass through this world but once
We love you papa
